

Who We Are

Located in the heart of Palouse Country - home of the Appaloosa breed, the museum was established in 1975 to collect, preserve, study, and exhibit objects and information that illustrate the history of the Appaloosa horse and its region of origin.

2720 W Pullman Rd
Moscow, ID 83843

Phone: 208-882-5578 xtn 279
E-mail: Museum@appaloosa.com

Located in the heart of Palouse Country

Friends of the Museum

Appaloosa
Museum

Friends of the Museum

Member Benefits Include

- *Newsletter Spotted at the Museum
- *10% discount on Appaloosa Trading Post purchases including online
- *Tour of the Museum and explanation of its holdings and operation.
- *Appreciation gatherings.

- *Preview of special displays and the opportunity to view museum items not on display.
- *Spot added to Commemorative Horse at designated level.
- *Opportunity to be identified as a donor/sponsor for specific projects or exhibits.

Yes! I want to support the Appaloosa Museum and Heritage Center with my tax-deductible pledge in the amount of

$ _____

___ Enclosed is my check payable to the Appaloosa Museum & Heritage Center or Charge my credit card:

___ VISA ___ MC ___ AM EX ___ DISCOVER

Name on card

Card Number:

Expiration Date _____

CV# _____

Signature

Name:

Address:

City _____

State _____ Zip _____

Email _____

Phone _____

Purpose:

To establish an ongoing system of financial support for the Appaloosa Museum.

Saddle Club $500.00 and above

Bridle Club $100.00 - $499.00

The Lariats $50.00 - $99.00

The Spurs $10.00 - $49.00

A p p a l o o s a M u s e u m

2720 W Pullman Rd
Moscow, ID 83843

Phone: 208-882-5578 xtn 279
E-mail: Museum@appaloosa.com